St Stephen's Players undertakes to collect and use your personal data in compliance with the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017. Our lawful basis for processing this data is our legitimate interest as an amateur dramatics club. We use the data for the administration of your membership, the communication of information and the organisation of events.

This information will be recorded in our membership database, which is stored in compliance with the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017.

Your data may be processed by other organisations that act as Data Processors on our behalf. They may only use it for the specific purposes for which they act as our data processors and they are not free to pass this on to other organisations.

We don't disclose to third parties unless necessary i.e. police, courts, emergencies, regulators.

Consent is asked for historical purposes so that present and past members can be contacted to be invited to future important events.  Tick if consent is given.

Full information about our data use policies can be requested from Steph Dragun, steph.dragun@outlook.com, 01481 255654.
